

National Indigenous Peoples Day - June 21

Every year on June 21, First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people of Turtle Island celebrate indigenous cultures, languages, gender identities including two-spirited identity, heritage, and achievements through song, dance, potlatch and pow wows.

Join the festivities – spend the Summer Solstice learning and celebrating Indigenous culture by finding events in your area, and talking with indigenous people in our union and in your community.

